DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: Figure 1; L5 and L6.
2. The drawings are objected to because Figure 2, both current mirrors' transistors have been labeled T6' and T7' where one should be T6 and T7.
3. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1-3, 5 and 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent Application 2003/0087626 to Prikhodko et al.

The applied reference has a common assignee and inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

6. Regarding claims 1, 3 and 7-9, Prikhodko discloses an RF power amplifier circuit (figure 1) for use in a device where the power amplifier is arranged to amplify high frequency signals the power amplifier comprising multiple^(i.e. three) stages for amplifying a signal output by a previous stage or an input with individual bias circuits for providing a bias (figure 2 and corresponding text as well as figure 1 and corresponding text). Disclosed is a first stage for amplifying an input signal (2, 18, 20, 22), and a first bias circuit (6) for providing a bias current to the first stage (I_{bias}), the first bias circuit (6) comprising a controlled current source (32 and 34), and the first bias circuit being arranged for feeding its bias current (I_{bias}) to a control electrode of a signal amplification transistor (2) of the first stage (2, 18, 20, 22; Also see paragraph [0038] and the abstract).

7. Regarding claim 2, which inherits all of the limitations of claim 1, Prikhodko discloses a bias circuit for use in the power amplifier circuit comprising a non-linear voltage/current converter⁽²⁴⁾ with one differential stage coupled to a reference voltage, coupled with a current mirror (Also see paragraphs [0037-0038]).

8. Regarding claim 5, which inherits all of the limitations of claim 1, Prikhodko discloses a power amplifier wherein the first bias circuit further comprises bias voltage means (36) for additionally providing a bias voltage to the first stage.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 4 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
